

University of Oxford Access Day: 22 June 2022

For young women from state schools in years 10-12 with Bangladeshi and Pakistani heritage

Have you ever wondered what it feels like to be a student at Oxford?

Come and find out for yourself with a day at the University of Oxford at the Oxford Centre for Islamic Studies, followed by halal lunch and visits to Trinity and Jesus Colleges!

Have a discussion with the brightest women in their fields, chat to our current students and potential future mentors informally and over a Q&A!

Hear from Dr Samina Khan, Director of Undergraduate Admissions and Outreach at Oxford about the value of an Oxford degree... and more!

Year 10 - 11 students must be accompanied by a teacher or parent. Teachers: please submit a booking request using THIS FORM.

EVENT PROGRAMME

Oxford Centre for Islamic Studies

- 09:30 Registration
- 10:00 Welcome address
- 10:15 Choice of two mini lectures with Q&A
- 11:30 Tours of the Oxford Centre for Islamic Studies
- 12:00 Lunch
- 12:45 Walk to Trinity College
- 13:15 Dr Samina Khan: Oxford University admissions, courses and careers
- 14:15 Tea Break
- 14:30 Q&A with current undergraduate students
- 15:00 Trinity and Jesus Colleges tours and end of day