About Our Visiting Preachers

Dave Bookless works for the International Charity A Rocha, a Christian Charity working for Conservation of our planet. He is the author of Planetwise – Dare to Care for God’s World (IVP, 2008) and God Doesn’t do Waste (IVP, 2010). www.arocha.org/en/people/dave-bookless/

Dave will stay on after dinner for an informal chat with drinks in the SCR for those who want to talk further about how we can play our part in conservation and sustainable living.

Susie Snyder is a theologian who crosses boundaries between Christian ethics, practical theology, and migration studies. She is the author of Asylum-Seeking, Migration and Church (Ashgate 2012) and co-editor of a new book series on Religion and Global Migrations with Palgrave Macmillan. Until recently, she was Director of the Catherine of Sienna College, Roehampton University. She is now Director of Part-Time Pathway at Ripon College Cuddesdon.

Nathan Mulcock studied Theology at Trinity College from 2009-12. He was a member of the Chapel Choir and a Chapel Warden. He returned to Oxford to train at St. Stephen’s House and was ordained in 2017. He is currently serving as a Curate in Stevenage.
