Trinity College invites applications for a Fixed-term, Part-time Stipendiary Lecturership in Law for one year, from 1st September 2020 to 31st August 2021. This post is intended to provide teaching for undergraduates from 1st October 2020 – 30th June 2021 while one of the College’s Fellows in Law (Dr Luke Rostill), is on leave. This is a part-time post, at 40% of a full-time equivalent. It is anticipated the postholder may hold another compatible post for the remaining 60% of their time.

LAW AT TRINITY COLLEGE

Trinity College has a strong profile in Law. Professor Nick Barber and Dr Luke Rostill are the Tutorial Fellows, and there are also two Junior Research Fellows in Law. At undergraduate level, the College admits circa six students a year to read Law or Law Studies in Europe. Graduates are regularly admitted for the BCL or research degrees in Law. For full information about the College, see the College website: www.trinity.ox.ac.uk.

TEACHING REQUIREMENTS

The successful candidate will be required to teach four `weighted` hours a week, averaged across three terms (October 2020-June 2021). [Note: if you teach two students, each hour is weighted at 1.25 hours; for three students at 1.5 hours, for four students at 1.75 hours, and for five or more students at 2 hours.] They will take a leading role in the organisation of Law, collaborating with the College’s other Senior Fellow in Law (Professor Nick Barber). They will also be expected to act as Director of Studies for some undergraduates studying Law, and to participate in the undergraduate admissions exercise (November-December 2020).

The core requirements for teaching (from October 2020-June 2021) are as follows:

- At FHS (Final Honour School - term 3 of year 1 and years 2 and 3): Land Law and Trusts Law (including revision sessions for students in year 3 preparing for Finals examinations).

It would also be desirable to offer FHS teaching in Contract Law.

Current syllabus details for the First Public Examination and Final Honour School in the various courses are at https://www.law.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/ba-jurisprudence.
CRITERIA FOR APPOINTMENT
The successful applicant will meet the following criteria.

Selection Criteria
- Possess a strong educational record, with a good first degree and research in a relevant area of Law, with a doctorate or substantial progress towards a doctorate.
- Be able to teach the core papers as specified above (under Teaching requirements).
- Be able to teach high-achieving undergraduates in both tutorials (usually two or three students) and small classes.
- Be able and willing to undertake administrative and pastoral responsibilities associated with the organisation of the subject in Trinity (October 2019-June 2020).

REMUNERATION AND OTHER ENTITLEMENTS
Salary: The starting salary is (pro rata) at point 27 on the HE single pay spine, rising to (pro rata) at point 28 on this scale in the second year of the appointment. For point 27, the salary will currently be £9,170 (i.e. 40% of £ 30,395 for 4 hours).

- Place of work: the Lecturer is expected to work in appropriate premises belonging to either Trinity College or the University of Oxford throughout the tenure of the post. They will be entitled to shared use of an office.
- Dining rights: the Lecturer will be entitled to lunch and dinner free of charge at the Common Table (SCR) during term and vacation, except when the kitchens are closed.
- Membership of the Senior Common Room (SCR): membership is provided free of charge.
- Research allowance: there is an allowance of up to £200 p.a. to cover research expenses not obtainable from other sources.
- Pension: the person appointed will be eligible to join USS.

Right to work: The appointment will be subject to the provision of proof of the right to work in the UK.

HOW TO APPLY
Applications must be sent by email (in PDF format) to the Academic Administrator, Trinity College (academic.administrator@trinity.ox.ac.uk) by 12 noon (UK time) on Wednesday 11th March 2020. They must comprise:
- Short covering letter indicating how the candidate would meet the specifications of the post
- Curriculum vitae
- Names and contact details (with email addresses) of two referees, one of whom should be a recent research supervisor or external examiner. It is the responsibility of candidates to ensure both referees send their references by email directly to the Academic Administrator (academic.administrator@trinity.ox.ac.uk) before the closing date of 12 noon (UK time) on Wednesday 11th March 2020.
Interviews will be held on Wednesday 1 April 2020. At the interview, candidates will be invited to give a short illustration of how they would teach a subject from the core Land Law and Trusts Law papers on the syllabus.

Reasonable interview expenses will be reimbursed (including overnight accommodation, if required, and travel from within the UK to Oxford). Candidates applying from outside the UK will be offered the option of an interview online.
